DEEPAK SIBAL, J (ORAL)

1.                Learned counsel for the appellant submits that certain basic issues could not be brought to the notice of the learned Single Judge leading to the passing of the impugned judgment and therefore, he be permitted to withdraw the present appeal with liberty to approach the learned Single Judge through filing of an application seeking review of the impugned judgment.
2.                Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for.
3.                It is clarified that in case the afore application to be filed by the appellant is rejected by the learned Single Judge, it will be open to the appellant to challenge that order and the impugned judgment by way of an Intra Court Appeal.
