....Petitioner

....Respondent

Mr. Ketan Antil, Advocate and Mr. Yogesh Rathee, Advocate for the respondent.

The learned counsel for the petitioner at the very outset, on from his client, submits that with the transfer of the concerned icer, the main apprehension no more survive at this stage.

2. Accordingly, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks withdrawal of the present petition with liberty to file the same afresh in case the circumstances so arise.

3. Dismissed as withdrawn at this stage.
