Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that as the claim of the appellant for reinstatement in service has been declined on the ground that contract of personal service cannot be enforced against a private institution and only a suit for damages will be maintainable, present regular second appeal may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty to the appellant to avail an appropriate remedy to claim the damages in respect of the wrongful termination of services of the appellant by wrongfully accepting the resignation before the desired date.

Ordered accordingly.
