CHANDIGARH*CRM-M-51440-2023 (O&M)*Date of Decision: 08.01.2024*SHAMSHER SINGH AND ANOTHER*...Petitioners*V/S*STATE OF HARYANA AND ANOTHER*...Respondents*CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARPREET SINGH BRAR

Present: Mr. A.S. Mann, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Vikas Bhardwaj, AAG Haryana.

Mr. Sahil Gambir, Advocate for
Mr. Gagan Bajaj, Advocate for respondent No. 2.

*HARPREET SINGH BRAR J. (Oral)

1. This petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking quashing of FIR No. 149 dated 02.09.2023 registered under Sections 323, 498-A and 506 of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Siwan, District Kaithal and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom in view of the compromise dated 05.10.2023.

2. The FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant-Mandeep Kaur on the allegations of marital discord between her and petitioner No. 1 and giving of beatings to the complainant by her husband and sister-in-law/petitioner No. 2. Now with the intervention of respectable persons, the matter has been amicably compromised between the parties and they have resolved their disputes and differences.

3. Keeping in view the fact that the parties have entered into a compromise, they were directed to appear before the trial court/Illaq Magistrate for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise. In pursuance of the direction, a report has been received from Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Gulha, District Kaithal stating that the compromise arrived at between the parties is without any pressure or coercion from any one and the same is genuine one.

4. Learned Assistant Advocate General, Haryana on instructions from the Investigating Officer and learned counsel for respondent No. 2 admitted the factum of compromise and submit that in case the parties have indeed settled their dispute, the State would have no objection to the quashing of the FIR, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record with their able assistance.

6. The parties have arrived at a compromise and settled their dispute. A compromise not only brings peace and harmony between the parties to a dispute, but also restores tranquility in the society. After considering the nature of offences allegedly committed and the fact that both the parties have amicably settled their dispute, continuance of criminal prosecution would be an exercise in futility, as the chances of ultimate conviction are bleak. A two Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Shakunta Sawhney (Mrs) Vs. Kaushalya (Mrs.) and others (1980) 1 SCC 63, speaking through Justice V.R. Krishna Iyer, has held as under:-

“4.The finest hour of justice arrives propitiously when parties, despite falling apart, bury the hatchet and weave a sense of fellowship or reunion.....”

7. Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme
