Case called twice, however, yet again there is no representation on behalf of the petitioner.

On the last date of hearing, Registry had been directed to intimate the learned counsel for the petitioner about the date fixed, as none had been putting in an appearance on behalf of the petitioner prior thereto.

As per the office report, learned counsel for the petitioner stands duly intimated.

In the aforementioned circumstances and in the light of continuous non-appearance of learned counsel for the petitioner, the petition stands dismissed for non prosecution.
