After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though the petitioner is not pressing the present petition at this stage but keeping in view the fact that the trial is not moving at a pace required for, the trial Court may kindly be directed to expedite the trial and to secure the presence of the witnesses, if required, harsh orders be passed so that the trial is concluded at the earliest.

Learned counsel for the respondent-State raises no objection to the said prayer of the learned counsel for the petitioner.

Keeping in view the above, present petition is disposed of having been not pressed any further with a direction to the trial Court to conclude the trial at the earliest preferably within a period of one year from the next date of hearing.
