CRM-W-1243-2024

The application is allowed as prayed for.

Main Case

1. The present petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ of mandamus directing the official respondents No.2 & 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of respondent Nos. 4 to 7 and take action on their representation dated 27.09.2024 (Annexure P-3).
2. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that they are major. They are in love with each other. Although petitioner no.1 is married with respondent no.4 on account of some matrimonial disputes in his family. It is stated that petitioners are drawn to each other because of their similar nature and affection and have decided to live together in a live-in relationship until the earlier marriage of petitioner no.1 is legally dissolved.
3. Notice of motion.

4. Ms. Ruchika Sabherwal, Sr. D.A.G., Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of respondents No.1 to 3, at this stage. The petitioners’ counsel is directed to supply the copy of the petition to her.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned State counsel without going into the question of legality of their relationship as well as without entering upon an exercise to evaluate the veracity of the averments made in the petition and also with regard to the sanctity of relationship or age of the petitioners, this petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent No.2-Senior Superintendent of Police Batala, District Gurdaspur, Punjab to look into the matter and dispose of the representation dated 27.09.2024 (Annexure P-3) in accordance with law and also to take necessary step, if any, genuine threat to life and liberty of the petitioners is found.

6. A copy of this order along with copy of representation dated 27.09.2024 (Annexure P-3) be sent to respondent No.2, so as to enable him to do the needful expeditiously.

7. It is made clear that this order shall not be taken to protect the petitioners from legal action for violation of law, if any, committed by them.
