Date of Decision:-20.03.2024

Malkeet Singh @ Mali and Ors.

.....Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and Ors.

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present: Mr. Sukhdeep Singh, Advocate for
Mr. ADS Sukhija, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Rajinder Singh Bhatta, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. Ish Karan Singh, Advocate for
Ms. Bhanvi, Advocate for respondents No.2 and 3.

ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeking quashing of FIR No.138 dated 31.05.2021, under 307, 324, 506 and 34 of IPC, registered at Police Station Sadar Patiala District Patiala and subsequent proceeding arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 13.10.2022 (Annexure P-2).

2. Keeping in view the fact that the parties entered into a settlement, the Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 02.12.2022 directed the parties to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court for getting their statements recorded in that regard. Pursuant thereto, a report dated 15.12.2022 has been received from Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Patiala stating that the compromise arrived at between the parties is voluntary and the same is without any pressure, coercion or undue influence.

3. Learned State counsel and learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondents No.2 and 3 admit the factum of compromise and submit that they have no objection in quashing of the FIR on that basis.

4. Perusal of the aforesaid report establishes that the parties have amicably settled their dispute, and continuance of criminal proceedings in such a situation will be an exercise in futility, as the chances of conviction are bleak. The power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised in such matters. It has been held by Supreme Court of India in cases Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another 2012(10) SCC 303 and Narinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab and another 2014(6) SCC 406 that criminal cases having overwhelmingly civil character, particularly those arising out of commercial transactions or matrimonial relationships or family disputes, should be quashed when the parties have resolved the disputes among themselves in a bona fide manner.

5. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "State of Madhya Pradesh Vs. Laxmi Narayan" (2019) 5 SCC 688, has upheld that the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. can quash the criminal proceedings in respect of non compoundable offences which are private in nature and do not have serious impact on society.

6. More so, the trial would also be a futile exercise as there is no cogent evidence to reach the conviction. Although the last part of the argument is not sustainable, as the Courts are well within its powers to proceed in the matter with the evidence available and merely because the parties have compromised would not be a ground, the trial would be futility, however, considering the other aspect that the future of the daughter of the petitioner will be capitalized.

7. Keeping in view the law laid down by the Hon’ble Apex Court in the aforesaid judgment, the present petition stands allowed and FIR No.138 dated 31.05.2021, under 307, 324, 506 and 34 of IPC, registered at Police Station Sadar Patiala District Patiala and subsequent proceeding arising therefrom, are hereby quashed qua the petitioners subject to costs of Rs.40,000/- to be paid by the petitioners (Collectively) and Rs.10,000/- to be paid by respondents No.2 and 3 within a period of two weeks from today in the account of the Poor Patients Welfare Fund, PGIMER, Chandigarh.
