SHEEL NAGU, C.J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed raising the grievance of breach of personal data available with respondent No.6, which is a private limited insurance company.
2. The record reveals that vide Annexure P-15, a complaint has been made to the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India, constituted under Section 3 of Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority Act, 1999.
3. The said complaint having been made ought to be pursued by the petitioner and decided by Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India.
4. Since, the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India is seized of the cause raised herein; it would be appropriate for the Authority to take call in this respect.

5. Accordingly, this Court disposes of the present petition without entering into merits of the case, with direction to Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India to decide the complaint (Annexure P-15) as expeditiously as possible by passing a speaking order appropriately within a period of three months, from today.

6. In case, the complaint (Annexure P-15) filed by the petitioner has not been received by Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India, then the petitioner is directed to file a fresh complaint, which, if filed within a period of 30 days, from today, shall be decided by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India, expeditiously.
