3. Contention

On behalf of the petitioner

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the parties i.e. the petitioner and respondents No.2 & 3 have entered into a compromise. He further contends that co-accused namely Samit @ Sumit, Vikas Sharma and Ramesh have already been granted the concession of regular bail/anticipatory bail by this Court vide orders dated 05.09.2024 (Annexure P-6), 04.07.2024 (Annexure P-8) and 18.07.2024 (Annexure P-9) passed in CRM-M-43684-2024, CRM-M-30775-2024, CRM-M-33181-2024 respectively.

On behalf of the State

Learned State Counsel appearing on advance notice, opposes the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that six injuries were given with danda by the petitioner along with other co-accused, which have been declared to be simple in nature.

On behalf of respondents No.2 and 3

Mr. Sahil Mehra, Advocate has put in appearance on behalf of respondents No.2 & 3 and filed his Power of Attorney, which is taken on records. He admits the factum of compromise entered into between petitioner and respondents No.2 & 3.

4. Analysis

Be that as it may, considering the fact that the parties have entered into compromise in addition to the fact that co-accused namely Samit @ Sumit, Vikas Sharma and Ramesh have already been granted the concession of regular bail/anticipatory bail by this Court vide orders dated 05.09.2024 (Annexure P-6), 04.07.2024 (Annexure P-8) and 18.07.2024 (Annexure P-9) passed in CRM-M-43684-2024, CRM-M-30775-2024, CRM-M-33181-2024 respectively.

5. Decision

In the light of above, the petitioner is directed to be released on anticipatory bail subject to his joining investigation with the Investigating

Officer concerned within a period of one week from today, on furnishing of personal/surety bonds to his satisfaction. The petitioner shall also abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) of BNSS, which are reproduced below:-

‘When the High Court or the Court of Session makes a direction under sub-section (1), it may include such conditions in such directions in the light of the facts of the particular case, as it may think fit, including-

(i) a condition that the person shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;

(ii) a condition that the person shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

(iii) a condition that the person shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

(iv) such other condition as may be imposed under sub-section (3) of section 480, as if the bail were granted under that section.’

However, it is made clear that in case the petitioner does not comply with the aforesaid direction of joining the investigation within a period of one week, the order passed by this Court today shall automatically stands cancelled.

In the aforesaid terms, the present petition stands allowed.
