Payment of cost and production of receipt thereof shall be condition precedent for recording of statement in the manner indicated above."

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 22.11.2024 from Id. Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Baghapurana has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

CRM-M-52482-2024 (O&M)

petition, namely, Gurmeet Singh Brar alias Meera

ii. As per the statement of HC Harjit Singh, there is only one complainant in the present FIR, namely Amandeep Kaur.

iii. That as per the statement of accused and HC Harjit Singh, accused Gurmeet Singh Brar alias Meeta was declared Proclaimed Offender vide order dated 22.10.2019 by the trial Court in the present FIR and the said order has already been quashed by the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court, Chandigarh vide order dated 13.03.2023 in CRM-M-34820-2022 (O & M). However, as per the statement of HC Harjit Singh, one another FIR No.67 dated 27.05.2009. under Section 498-A of IPC, Police Station Sadar Faridkot has also been registered against the above-said accused.

The statements of parties have been recorded in the presence of their counsels and in the presence of power of attorney of accused, namely, Harinderpal Singh. From the conduct and statements of parties, the compromise effected between the parties appears to be genuine, voluntary executed and without any influence or coercion.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise.

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is :

(a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.

CRM-M-52482-2024 (O&M)

- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.*
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.*
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Learned counsel for the parties, in support of their contentions have relied upon the following judgments :-

- i) Ranjeet Kumar versus State of H.P. & Ors. in case Cr.MMO No. 648 of 2023 decided on 08.12.2023 by the High Court of Himachal Pradesh, Shimla.
- ii) Arif Khan versus The State and another in case W.P. (CRL) 1064/2023 decided on 09.01.2024 by the High Court of Delhi at New Delhi.

CRM-M-52482-2024 (O&M)

- Iii) Sukhchain Singh and others versus State of Punjab and others 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 81.*
- iv) Ananda DV Vs. State and another 2021 SCC Online SC 3423.*

9. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (iv) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

10. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.22 dated 06.02.2018 under Section 354-D of IPC, registered at Police Station Baghapurana, District Moga and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 05.10.2024 (Annexure P2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.

11. Pending applications, if any, shall also stand disposed off.
