Versus

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE AMARJOT BHATTIPresent: Mr.Sandeep Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Kewal Singh, Addl.A.G. Punjab.

AMARJOT BHATTI, J (Oral):

Petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 for setting aside the impugned order dated 04.06.2024 (Annexure P-3) passed by learned Session Judge, Kapurthala in FIR No. 14, dated 07.05.2022, under Sections 379-B, 506, 34 and 411 of IPC and Section 25 of Arms Act, registered at Police Station Dhilwan, District Kapurthala, whereby the bail bonds and surety bonds of the petitioner have been cancelled and forfeited to the State and his arrest warrants have been issued.

2. Perusal of file shows that petitioner absented on 04.06.2024 and since then Court is issuing process to procure his service by issuing their non-bailable warrants of arrest and also by giving notice to the surety. Till date, present petitioner has not put appearance before the trial Court. Even, bailable warrants of the surety are also issued.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that present petitioner met with an accident and for that reason he was bedridden. However, he does not have any medical record to support the aforesaid arguments.

4. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner stated that petitioner is ready to surrender before the trial Court on the date fixed with prayer that his regular bail application may be decided expeditiously.

5. I have considered the plea taken by learned counsel for the petitioner. The learned trial Court was making every possible endeavour to procure the presence of present petitioner and on account of his absence even the trial is also delayed.

6. Considering the arguments, present petitioner may surrender before the trial Court before the date fixed and in return the trial Court may decide his regular bail application as per law within a span of one week. With the aforesaid direction, present petition is accordingly disposed of.
