IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Sr. No.120

TA-1327-2024 (O&M)
Date of Decision: 16.12.2024

ANCHAL GUPTA

....Applicant

Versus

KARAN JINDAL

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ARCHANA PURI

Present:- Ms. Jasleen Kaur, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. Sangram Singh Saron, Advocate for the respondent.

ARCHANA PURI, J. (Oral)

At this stage, counsel for the applicant submits that she does not want to pursue with the transfer application and the same be dismissed as withdrawn.

However, counsel for the respondent has resisted the withdrawal of the application, as he submits that wrong facts have been given in the documents, annexed with the transfer application i.e. petition under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act.

On query by the court, it is submitted that petition under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act, was infact filed with the consent of both the parties and statements of first motion were recorded. However, at the time of statement of second motion, the applicant had withdrawn her consent, on account of which, petition under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act, is still pending. Counsel submits that in the statement of first motion got recorded
