2. Ld. State Counsel on instructions from ASI Kamaljit Singh admits that after the cancellation report was filed the petitioners appeared before the Trial Court and have furnished the bail bonds.

3. Mr. Sharma representing the complainant however submits that the cancellation report filed stands rejected by the Trial Court. Thus, keeping in view the seriousness of the allegations it won't be a case for grant of pre-arrest bail.

4. However, Mr. Sharma is not in position to dispute that FIR came into being on 21.03.2021 i.e. the date of occurrence. Suicide note appended along with the present petition as Annexure P-3 was produced by the complainant on 22.03.2021 i.e. the next day and thereafter the second suicide note appended along with the present petition as Annexure P-4 was produced on 24.03.2021. He also does not dispute that though the reports from forensic lab have prima-facie opined that the hand-writing on the suicide notice and on the diary appeared to be same but there is no evidence yet on record that the diary with which the hand-writing of suicide note was compared contained hand-writing of the deceased.

5. Having heard rival contentions of the parties, without commenting on the merits of the case, keeping in view the nature of the allegations against the petitioners and the fact that the alleged suicide note is still under question and the Investigating Agency has found that there is nothing against the petitioners, this Court finds that it is a fit case for making the interim order absolute. Resultantly, orders dated 16.11.2023 and 04.12.2023 are made absolute, subject to the conditions as enumerated under Sections 438(2) Cr.P.C.

6. This order should not be treated as "blanket" order. It will not be read granting the petitioners indefinite protection from arrest. It shall be confined to the FIR mentioned ibid and will not operate in respect of any other incident that involves commission of an offence.

7. This order does not in any manner limit or restrict the rights or duties of the police or investigating agency to investigate into the charges against the petitioners.

8. The petitioners shall be deemed to be in custody for the purpose of Section 27 of the Evidence Act in regard to a discovery of facts made in pursuance of information supplied by the petitioners in case the occasion arises.

9. It will be open to the police or the investigating agency to move this Court for a direction under Section 439(2) Cr.P.C. to arrest the accused, in the event of violation of any term, such as absconding, non-cooperating
