N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1.           The petitioner has filed the present petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India with a prayer to direct the respondent No.3 to extend the parole, which was granted to the petitioner.
2.           On advance notice, Mr. Vipul Jindal, Addl. P.P. for U.T., Chandigarh has appeared on behalf of the State and submits that the petitioner has already surrendered before the jail authorities on 27.10.2024 and the present petition is not maintainable before this Court. However, he further assured the Court that the present petitioner shall be provided the best possible treatment, as per Punjab Jail Manual.
3.           In view of the statement made by learned State counsel, no further directions are required in the present case and the same is disposed of accordingly.

28.10.2024.
