N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. with a prayer to grant anticipatory bail to him in case FIR No.433 dated 26.10.2023, registered under Sections 148, 149, 323, 325, 506 of IPC, at Police Station Kherki Dhaula, Gurugram.

2. While granting the concession of interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner on 05.12.2023, this Court had noticed the following contentions:-

“Learned Senior counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely involved in the present case. From the perusal of the FIR (Annexure P-1), it is evident that there are no specific allegation against the present petitioner of causing any injury to the three injured, namely, Vivek, Paras Ram and Yogender. Even the Statement of Yogender, injured was recorded after three days of the occurrence and even in the said statement, there is no specific attribution to the present petitioner. He further contends that except Section 506 of IPC, all other offences are bailable. He further contends that even though, two more FIRs have been registered against the present petitioner, however, the petitioner is on bail in both the cases. ”

3. Learned Senior counsel for the petitioner submits that in compliance of the order dated 05.12.2023 passed by this Court, the petitioner has joined the investigation.
4. Learned counsel for the State has submitted that the petitioner has joined the investigation and is no longer required for further investigation.
5. In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the parties, the present petition is allowed and the interim order dated 05.12.2023, passed by this Court is made absolute. The petitioner shall continue to join investigation, as and when called by the Investigating Officer and shall also abide by the conditions as provided under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
