“The petitioners have approached this Court seeking quashing of FIR (Annexure P-1) and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom on the basis of a compromise having been effected between the parties. Notice of motion.

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 19.04.2024 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ludhiana has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“In compliance of above said order dated 03.04.2024 of Hon'ble High Court, accused Gurmit Singh, Rajwant Kaur and Parminder Singh Benipal (through special attorney Rajwant Kaur) (petitioners) and complainant Jaspreet Kaur (respondent No.2) appeared before the court on 09.04.2024 and their separate statements with regard to compromise have been recorded in the court. Parties have been identified by their respective counsels. Copy of Settlement Agreement dated 05.10.2023 effected before Mediation and Conciliation Centre of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court Ex.CA and copy of special power of attorney executed by Parminder Singh Benipal in favour of Rajwant Kaur Ex.CB have been placed on record. After recording statements of parties with regard to compromise, this court is of the considered opinion that all the affected parties have entered into compromise and compromise in question is found to be a valid compromise and has been effected without there being any kind of influence or coercion. It is further submitted that in compliance of above said orders of Hon'ble High Court, SI Mangal Singh, Investigating Officer of the case was called and his statement was recorded accordingly. As per the statement of Investigating Officer, requisite report is as under:-

(i) There is no other accused other than the petitioners, arrayed in the petition pending before Hon'ble High Court.

(ii) There is no other complainant or affected/aggrieved party other than the respondents, arrayed in the petition pending before Hon'ble High Court.

(iii). No accused has been declared as Proclaimed Offender."

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

(a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.

(b) However, wider the power greater the caution.

(c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.9 dated 29.03.2022 under Sections 406 & 498-A of IPC, registered at Police Station, NRI, Police Commissionerate Ludhiana and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 05.10.2023 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
