HARKESH MANUJA J. (Oral)

1. Learned State counsel representing the respondents informs that upon consideration of order passed by the Writ Court, a decision has been taken to grant benefit in favour of the petitioner in terms of order dated 21.03.2024 passed in CWP-6818-2024 read with judgment dated 13.05.2024 passed in CWP-9410-2016 and the said benefits shall be released within a period of three weeks from today.

2. In view of the aforesaid undertaking, learned counsel for the petitioner does not want to press the present petition.

3. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed being not pressed. Rule stands discharged.

4. However, in case the needful is not done within the afore-stated period, as per undertaking, the petitioner would be at liberty to seek revival of the present contempt petition and in that eventuality, the erring concerned officer(s) would be liable to pay additional sum of Rs.50,000/- as costs from his/her own pocket in favour of the petitioner towards litigation expenses, immediately, i.e. on the first date of listing of revival application.
