M/s National Sales Corporation and another ...Petitioners

Versus

Tinku Kumar ...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KARAMJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. Raghav Goyal, Advocate for the petitioners.

KARAMJIT SINGH, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petition has been filed by the petitioner/accused seeking quashing of order dated 10.10.2024 Annexure P-2 passed by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Patiala in Criminal Appeal No. CRA-467-2024 titled as M/s National Sales Corporation and Another Vs. Tinku Kumar whereby the substantive sentence of the petitioner was suspended subject to condition that he shall deposit 20% equivalent of the cheque amount as per the provisions enshrined under Section 148 of Negotiable Instruments Act, with the trial Court within a period of one month, failing which the trial Court shall be at liberty to initiate recovery proceedings for recovery of said amount.

2. The brief facts of the case are that respondent/complainant filed criminal complaint under Section 138 NI Act against the petitioners wherein on completion of trial the petitioners were convicted and sentenced to simple imprisonment for a period of one year and to pay compensation equivalent to cheque amount along with interest from the date of cheque i.e. 24.12.2020.

Being aggrieved the petitioners filed an appeal against the said judgment and order dated 17.09.2024 passed by the trial Court and he also sought suspension of sentence during the pendency of the appeal. The appellate Court entertained the appeal and passed impugned order Annexure P-2.

3. Being not satisfied, the petitioners has filed the present revision petition.

4. I have heard the counsel for the petitioners.

5. The counsel for the petitioners submits that deposit of minimum of 20% amount of the cheque amount under Section 148 of Negotiable Instruments Act as a condition to suspend sentence is not an absolute rule as has been held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari Vs. M.P. State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. And others 2023 (10) SCC 446. The counsel for the petitioners further submits that provision of Section 148 NI Act is not mandatory and the appellate Court passed the impugned order without application of mind and that the impugned order being illegal is not sustainable in eye of law.

6. I have considered the submissions made by the counsel for the petitioners .

7. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra) has observed that deposit of minimum 20% compensation/fine amount is not an absolute blanket rule under Section 148 of Negotiable Instruments Act while considering the request of the accused for suspension of sentence. The Hon'ble Supreme Court further observed that it was duty of the appellate Court to give reasons for imposing the condition to deposit 20% of compensation for suspending the sentence.

8. The appellate Court while suspending a sentence cannot pass a blanket order in all cases to deposit 20% of the compensation or fine without assigning any reason. The impugned order is not in consonance with the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra).

9. For the forgoing reasons, the present petition is allowed and the direction to deposit 20% of the cheque amount is set aside. The appellate Court is directed to reconsider the matter, after giving opportunity of hearing to petitioner and respondent, in the light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra). Till fresh orders are passed by the appellate Court as directed above, no coercive steps shall be taken against the petitioner. The petitioner is directed to appear before the appellate Court on the date already fixed in the appeal.

10. The petition stands disposed of in aforesaid terms, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case.

11. Keeping in view the nature of order being passed, no notice is required to be issued to the respondent. However, if he feel dis-satisfied with this order, he may move an application to recall the same.
