3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 19.02.2024 from Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Kalka has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

"A copy of order dated 13.02.2024 passed by Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana, Chandigarh in CRM-M-59571-2023 was received in this Court being Illaq Magistrate, vide which this Court was directed to submit a report regarding the compromise after recording the statements of the parties specifying the following:- .

2. As per directions of Hon'ble High Court, on dated 13.02.2024 complainant Harvinder Kaur appeared before the court and got recorded her statement to the effect that she got the above said FIR registered against the accused Jaspreet Singh, Surinder Kaur and Lovely @ Aman Kaur @ Amanpreet Kaur. Now with the intervention of respectable of the society and relatives, the dispute between her and accused have been settled vide Ex.C1 (compromise). This compromise is voluntary and genuine and now she has no grudge against the above named accused. She is giving this statement voluntarily and on the basis of her free will. She has no objection, if the present FIR is quashed against the accused.

3. Thereafter, accused Jaspreet Singh, Surinder Kaur and Lovely @ Aman Kaur @ Amanpreet Kaur got recorded their joint statement that they have compromised the matter with the complainant voluntarily and without any pressure or undue influence from any side. The FIR in question is against three persons namely Jaspreet Singh, Surinder Kaur and Lovely @ Aman Kaur @ Amanpreet Kaur. They are giving their statement voluntarily on basis of free will. The compromise is genuine.

4. Statement of Investigating Officer L/HC Sukhjinder Kaur, Belt No. 33/PKL, P.S. Since the matter has been compromised by the complainant with the accused without any coercion, pressure or undue influence from any side, who has no objection with regard to quashing of FIR on the basis of compromise, therefore, the statements of parties are bonafide. The compromise is valid and genuine. Therefore, report be sent to your goodself."

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.182 dated 04.06.2017 under Sections 323, 406, 498-A and 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station, Pinjore, District Panchkula and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 03.10.2023 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
