AT CHANDIGARH*215*CRM-M-54944 OF 2024*DATE OF DECISION :- 18.12.2024*Saurav Rana @ Sourav Rana*...Petitioner*Versus*State of Punjab and another*...Respondents*CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUMEET GOEL*Present:- Mr. S.S. Bedi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Anup Singh, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Amandeep Singh, Advocate for complainant-respondent No. 2.****SUMEET GOEL, J. (Oral)

1. This petition has been filed under Section 482 of BNSS, 2023 for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in FIR No.39 dated 10.04.2024 registered for offences punishable under Sections 406/498-A of IPC, 1860 at Police Station NRI Wing, District SAS Nagar.

2. On 06.11.2024, the following order was passed:-

“At the outset learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, on account of inadvertence, the complainant could not be arrayed as a party-respondent in the main petition. An oral request has been made by learned counsel in this regard. Keeping in view the totality of facts and circumstances of the case, complainant, namely, Swaranjali Rana d/o Raj Kanwal Singh, r/o Una, Himachal Pradesh, presently r/o H. No.370, Sector 71, SAS Nagar, is hereby impleaded as party-respondent No.2.

Apprehending his arrest in FIR No.39 dated 10.04.2024 registered for offences punishable under Sections 406/498-A of IPC, 1860 at Police Station NRI Wing, District SAS Nagar; the petitioner has preferred this petition under

Inter alia contends that the genesis of the FIR in question is a matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the complainant-wife; petitioner is willing to return all the dowry articles/istridhan/gold articles as also documents of the complainant in his possession to the complainant; petitioner is ready for an amicable settlement as well & petitioner is willing to join investigation and cooperate therein in accordance with law. In order to buttress his arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the dicta of the judgments rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Arnesh Kumar Vs. State of Bihar, 2014 AIR (SCW) 3930, and reiterated in Md. Asfak Alam Vs. The State of Jharkhand & Anr., 2023 AIR (Supreme Court) 3610.

Notice of motion.

On asking of the Court, Mr. Yuvraj Singh Tiwana, Asstt. A.G., Punjab, appears and accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State.

Adjourned to 02.12.2024.

The petitioner is directed to appear before the Investigating Officer on 12.11.2024 at 11:00 A.M. in concerned Police Station and join investigation.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on interim bail subject to his furnishing personal/surety bond(s) to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer/Investigating Officer. As and when further called by Investigating Officer, the petitioner shall join the investigation. He shall abide by the condition(s) enumerated under Section 482(2) of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023. The concerned SHO, through the learned State counsel, is directed to inform respondent No.2 (newly added respondent) about the pendency of the present petition as also next date of hearing fixed in the present petition. The concerned SHO shall also file a compliance report in this regard on or before the next date of hearing.”

3. Learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Satkar Singh, has stated that pursuant to the order dated 06.11.2024, the petitioner has joined investigation and is no longer required for custodial interrogation. However, learned State counsel as also the learned counsel for the complainant have submitted that only partial recovery of dowry articles has been effected and remaining dowry articles are yet to be recovered.

CRM-M-54944 OF 2024      3

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that no dowry articles/Istridhan are in possession of the petitioner and, in fact, the entire dowry articles/Istridhan is with the aggrieved-wife.

5. I have heard the learned counsel for the rival parties and have perused the paper book.

6. It will be apposite to refer to a judgment dated 12.02.2024 passed by this Court in CRM-M-60647-2023 titled as “Varun Sharma Vs. State of Punjab and another”, relevant whereof reads as under:

“11. As a sequel to the above said discussion, the following principles of law emerge:-

(I) Non-recovery of dowry articles/Istri-dhan cannot ordinarily be a ground, by itself, for declining a plea for grant of anticipatory bail to the husband or his relatives.

(II) The conduct of an accused, is indeed, a relevant factor for consideration of a plea for grant of anticipatory bail on behalf of such accused. Such conduct would also include the cooperation, in accordance with law, extended by such accused for recovery of dowry articles/Istri-dhan. Whether or not such cooperation was extended by the accused would be ascertainable from the facts and circumstances of a given case.

(III) In exceptional cases, if the peculiar and/or accentuating facts/circumstances of the case so warrant, a Court would be well within its discretion to pass a direction to the petitioner-accused to deposit in Court or remit to the complainant-wife an appropriate amount towards the Istri-dhan/dowry articles. Needless to state herein that it is neither possible nor desirable to enumerate a set of guidelines in this regard & a Court would have to exercise its judicial discretion in this regard in the facts and circumstances of a given case.”

7. Non-recovery of dowry articles/Istridhan in entirety thereof cannot, by itself, be a cause for rejection of the present plea for anticipatory bail by the petitioner especially when the State does not require custodial interrogation of petitioner on any other count except for effecting recovery of remaining dowry articles/Istridhan. The aspect, as to what all are the dowry articles/Istridhan in question in the present case & whether the entire dowry articles have been recovered or not, shall be essentially gone into during the course of trial. No accentuating circumstances are decipherable, from the factual matrix of the present case, so as to direct the petitioner to deposit any amount towards the alleged non-recovery of complete dowry articles. No such misconduct by the petitioner has been pointed out which may dissuade this Court from confirming the interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

8.            In view of above, the petition is allowed and interim order dated 06.11.2024 passed by this Court is made absolute, subject to the conditions as enumerated under Section 482(2) of BNSS, 2023.

9.            This order should not be treated as “blanket” order. It will not be interpreted as granting petitioner indefinite protection from arrest. It shall be confined to the FIR mentioned ibid and will not operate in respect of any other incident that involves commission of an offence.

10.           Liberty is reserved in favour of State/complainant to move for cancellation/recall of this order in case the petitioner violates any condition stipulated under Section 482(2) of BNSS, 2023 or upon showing any other sufficient cause.

11.           Needless to say that anything observed herein above shall not be construed to be an opinion on the merits of the case.

12.           Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
