2. Vide order dated 05.11.2024, passed by this Court, the petitioner was granted interim bail and was directed to join investigation. Order dated 05.11.2024, passed by this Court, reads as under:

“The instant petition has been filed by the petitioner seeking grant of pre arrest bail in case arising out of FIR No.83 dated 12.09.2024 registered under Sections 110, 333, 115(2), 351, 191(3) and 190 of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (for short-'BNS') at Police Station Longowal, District Sangrur on the basis of statement recorded by the complainant- Gurlal Singh alleging therein that on 11.09.2024, at about 8 AM, his mother Sukhpal Kaur was standing near the gate of their house whereas he along with his father was present inside his house when the present petitioner along with her wife and Jasvir Singh who are residing in their neighbourhood, were standing in the street. Jasvir Singh was spilling water which got accumulated in front of the house of the complainant. When his mother had objected to the same, the petitioner and co-accused had started hurling abuses. After some time, they entered inside the house of the complainant and assaulted the complainant and thereafter fled away. After registration of the FIR, investigation proceedings have been initiated and are underway. Apprehending his arrest, the petitioner had moved an application for grant of pre-arrest bail which had been dismissed by the Court of learned Additional Sessions Judge, Sangrur vide order dated 29.10.2024.

It is argued by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He is 77 years old person and neither any overt act nor any injury has been attributed to him rather the same has been attributed to his grandson-Lovepreet Singh. He is ready to join the investigation. His custodial interrogation is not required. No recovery is to be effected from him. Co-accused namely Gurdayal Kaur @ Gurdial Kaur has also been extended benefit of pre-arrest bail by this Court vide order dated 23.10.2024. Therefore, it is urged that the petitioner deserves to be extended benefit of pre arrest bail.

Notice of motion.

Learned State counsel who has appeared on advance notice of the petition, by resisting the plea taken in the petition has submitted that there are specific allegations against the present petitioner and he does not deserve to be given benefit of bail.

Adjourned to 06.12.2024.

In the meantime, the petitioner is directed to appear before the Investigating/Arresting Officer to join investigation within one week or as and when subsequently required thereafter. In the event of his arrest, the Investigating/Arresting Officer shall release the petitioner on ad-interim bail subject to his/her satisfaction. 4. Keeping in view the above mentioned facts and circumstances, without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the order dated 05.11.2024, granting interim bail to the petitioner, is made absolute, subject to compliance of usual terms and conditions requisite for grant of anticipatory bail.
