3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 27.11.2024 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Hisar has been received, which is taken on record.

As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“1. In the abovesaid FIR, IO/LHC Kanta No.263/HSR, P.S. Sadar, Hisar (IO of the present case) has appeared and suffered a statement before this Court on 26.11.2024. As per her statement, the present case bearing FIR no.1481 of 19.12.2022 was lodged against two accused persons namely Rohit Gupta and Beena Gupta. There is no other accused in this case.

2. As per the statement of IO only Akanksha Saraf is complainant/victim and no other affected/aggrieved person is other than complainant/victim in aforesaid case.

3. No accused has been declared proclaimed offender in this case.

As per the statement of complainant, she stated that she has voluntarily (out of her own free will) compromised the matter with accused Beena Gupta and Rohit Gupta, without any coercion, undue influence and pressure. She further stated that she does not want any proceedings against them. In the similar manner, accused Beena Gupta and Rohit Gupta have given the separate statements to the effect that the matter has been compromised with the complainant voluntarily, without any coercion, undue influence and pressure. From the statements of complainant and aforesaid accused, it appears that the matter between them has been compromised voluntarily, without any pressure of any kind, from any corner and the compromise effected between them, is genuine. Hence, it seems that the statements of parties are bona fide and are not the result of any threat, duress or coercion in any manner and the compromise effected between the parties is genuine, voluntary, out of their free will, without any coercion or undue influence and is valid.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No. 2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-3).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State

State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/ charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Learned counsel for the parties, in support of their contentions have relied upon the following judgments :-

- i) Ranjeet Kumar versus State of H.P. & Ors. in case CRM-M-648 of 2023 decided on 08.12.2023 by the High Court of Himachal Pradesh, Shimla.
- ii) Arif Khan versus The State and another in case W.P. (CRL) 1064/2023 decided on 09.01.2024 by the High Court of Delhi at New Delhi.
- iii) Sukhchain Singh and others versus State of Punjab and others 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 81.
- iv) Ananda DV Vs. State and another 2021 SCC Online SC 3423.

9. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (iv) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

10. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No. 1481 dated 19.12.2022 under Sections 34, 294, 323, 354-B and 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Sadar Hisar and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-3), in the form of petition under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

11. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
