to the notice of learned Sessions Judge, Patiala and thereafter a report be submitted in the matter before date fixed.”

2. In pursuance to the above order, a report from learned District and Sessions Judge, Patiala, dated 12.01.2024, has been received and operative part of the same reads as under:-

“The officer has further submitted that the above error had occurred due to oversight and the same was inadvertent and the officer could not notice that there were two sub paras in the FSL report. The officer has deeply regretted for this error which has occurred at the time of calculation of the total quantity while allowing the bail application dated 06.11.2023. The officer has assured that he shall remain vigilant in future and no such error would be repeated and has sought unconditional apology. The comments submitted by the concerned officer are attached herewith as annexure-A.”

3. Still further, the relevant part of the comments (Annexure-A) sent by learned Special Court, is also extracted as under:-

“It is further humbly submitted that under above mentioned circumstances the order dated 6.11.2023 and 8.11.2023 have been passed by the undersigned and occurrence of above mentioned error while passing order dated 6.11.2023 is hereby deeply regretted and the undersigned hereby assure that I will remain vigilant in future and no such error would be repeated and the undersigned hereby submits unconditional apology for the same.”

4. After arguing for some time, when this Court was not inclined to accept the prayer, learned counsel, on instructions from the petitioner, wishes to withdraw the present petition with liberty to pursue his petition i.e. CRM-M-59341-2023 for regular bail.
