.....PETITIONER

VERSUS

State of Haryana

.....RESPONDENT

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. L.S. Sekhon, Advocate for petitioner.

Mr. Neeraj Sheoran, DAG Haryana.

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has approached this Court challenging order dated 23.04.2024 (Annexure P-3) passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Sirsa, whereby his bail has been cancelled by the Trial Court on account of his absence on 23.04.2024.

2. This impugned order dated 23.04.2024 (Annexure P-3), having been passed by the Court on account of violation of conditions of the bail bonds/surety bonds this Court does not wish to comment upon the same.

3. It is, however, directed that in case the petitioner surrenders before the Trial Court within 10 days from today and moves an application for grant of regular bail, the Trial Court shall consider the same expeditiously while taking into account the observations made in concluding paragraph of judgment passed by this Court in CRM-M-39172 of 2021 titled Pawan Kumar Vs. State

“12. Before parting with this order, it needs to be added that this Court cannot lose sight of the fact that there would be certain cases where an accused is unable to appear before the trial Court on account of genuine reasons, say on account of having noted the date incorrectly or on account of certain reasons which are beyond his control. In such cases, the accused can surrender before the trial Court and it is expected that the trial Courts would take a lenient view in genuine cases and decide the regular bail application expeditiously. In a given set of circumstances where the trial Court is satisfied that there were valid reasons for the absence of an accused and that he has surrendered at the shortest possible time, the trial Court can in fact dispose of the regular bail application on the very day the same is presented by accused upon his surrender. The trial Court, in its discretion, may also chose to grant interim bail, in fit cases, but only after surrender of accused.”

4. While deciding the application, the trial Court shall duly take into account the past conduct and also the fact that the petitioner is a lady and is stated to be having a clean record.

5. The petition stands disposed off accordingly.
