1. The instant petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of directions to the official respondents to protect the lives and liberty of the petitioners and to restrain the private respondents from harassing the petitioners or interfering in their peaceful married life.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners states that petitioner no.2 who is alleged to have taken divorce by way of court decree (Annexure P-6), has solemnized marriage with petitioner no.1, who is an unmarried girl. However, it has caused grievance to the respondents no.4 to 10. Such grievance of the respondents no.4 to 10 has made them apprehensive of danger to their lives and liberty and resultantly, it has constrained them to approach this Court, to seek protection of their lives and liberty. The marriage certificate of the petitioners evidencing their marriage is available on record respectively as Annexures P-5. The petitioners have also submitted a representation dated 08.11.2024 and dated 08.11.2024 (Annexure P-7 and 8) to the respondent no.2 and 3 respectively.

3. Notice of motion to the official respondent(s) only.
4. On the asking of the Court, Mr. Rajesh Gaur, Addl.A.G., Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of the official respondent(s).
5. This Court has put a specific query to learned counsel for the petitioners, whether, the petitioners are major, and if it is the first marriage of petitioner no.1, and second marriage of petitioner no.2; and whether petitioner no.2 has taken divorce from his earlier wedlock, to which he replied in affirmative.
6. Without entering upon an exercise to evaluate the evidentiary value of the documents placed on the file, the instant petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent no.2-Superintendent of Police, Jind, to decide the representation (Annexure P-7) of the petitioners and grant them protection, if any threat to their lives and liberty is perceived. It is clarified that this order shall not be taken to grant immunity to the petitioners from legal action for violation of law, if any, committed by them. This order shall not be understood to have expressed any opinion whatsoever by this Court on the validity of the marriage of the petitioners.
