.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN PALLI
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKRAM AGGARWAL

Present: Mr. Ashish Aggarwal, Sr. Advocate with Ms. Aashnan Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

for the respondents-HSVP.

ARUN PALLI, J (Oral)

The petitioner herein has prayed for the following substantive relief:

“Petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of writs in the nature of certiorari, mandamus, prohibition etc. for quashing the impugned order/Online decision dated 13.07.2023 (Annexure P-18) passed by the Estate Officer, respondent No.4, as illegal, ultravires, void and without jurisdiction, by which the petitioner has been denied the allotment of the alternate plot illegally and further directing the respondents to allot the alternate plot in lieu of his original allotment and further praying that one plot be kept reserved for the petitioner in lieu of his original allotment during the pendency of the present Civil Writ Petition before this Hon’ble Court.”

Learned counsel for the respondents, at the outset, submits that as the impugned order dated 13.07.2023 (P-18) has been withdrawn, the petition is rendered infructuous and as a consequence, the petitioner shall now have to re-apply to the respondent authorities and as soon as application in this regard is moved, the competent authority shall take cognizance thereof and proceed with the process of allotment. And/or also consider the viability of restoring the originally allotted site.

To this, all what is submitted in response, by the learned Senior counsel, is that the necessary application, as suggested by the learned counsel for the respondents, shall be moved within a week from today but the authorities be directed to take necessary action thereon within a specified time.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that within one week of the receipt of the application, the process of allotment shall be initiated and the matter shall be finally disposed of within the next three weeks.

Accordingly, learned Senior counsel for petitioner submits that let this petition be disposed of in terms of the statement made by learned counsel for the respondents.

In the wake of the position sketched out above, this petition is accordingly disposed of in terms of the statement made by learned counsel for the parties.
