2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that a concocted story having been brought forth by the investigating agency is evident from the fact that neither was the son of the petitioner apprehended with the alleged contraband nor did his name surface during the interrogation of the co-accused, much less by way of any disclosure statement, however, subsequently out of nowhere, a zimni order dated 09.07.2024 surfaced leading to the petitioner's son being nominated as an accused in the present case.
