MANISHA BATRA, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed under Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No.19 dated 14.02.2021 under Sections 323, 34, 406 and 498-A of IPC registered at Women Police Station, Jind District Jind and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of affidavit dated 11.12.2023 (Annexure P-3) and joint statement recorded in under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act dated 02.12.2023 (Annexure P-4) arrived at between the parties.

2. The aforementioned FIR had been lodged by respondent No.2 and investigation was commenced thereon.

3. It is submitted by counsel for the petitioners that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties and they have resolved their inter se dispute, which was reduced into writing on the basis of affidavit dated 11.12.2023 (Annexure P-3) and joint statement recorded in under Section 13-B of Hindu

Marriage Act dated 02.12.2023 (Annexure P-4) arrived at between the parties annexed with the present petition.

4. On the basis of said compromise, the petitioners have prayed for quashing of the aforesaid FIR and all the subsequent proceedings on the ground that continuation of such proceedings would be a futile exercise.

5. This Court vide order dated 19.12.2023 had directed the parties to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court for recording their statements with regard to the genuineness of the compromise stated to have been arrived at between them. The Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court was also directed to send her report along with the said statements.

6. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, The Judicial Magistrate 1st Jind sent report vide endorsement No.76 dated 23.01.2024 to this Court along with original statements of the respondent No.2-Kiran and joint statement of the petitioners recorded on 19.01.2024 and statement of Investigating Officer ASI-Sunita as recorded on 19.01.2024.

7. On the basis of these statements, it is submitted by learned Magistrate that the compromise effected between the parties is genuine, out of free Will and without any pressure or coercion. It is also mentioned in the report that apart from the petitioners, there is no other accused in the FIR and that the accused have not been declared proclaimed persons in this case.

8. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and besides perusing the report by learned Judicial Magistrate, have also perused the record.

9. It is well settled that the High Court has power to allow compounding of a non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. where it feels that the same is required to prevent the abuse of process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. Such power is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone. In this regard, reference can be made to a Full Bench judgment of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052. It is equally settled position of law that the power of High Court in quashing criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation. Such power can certainly be exercised in cases relating to offences arising out of matrimony relating to dowry etc. or the family disputes where the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. The High Court is required to consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of criminal proceedings would tantamount to abuse of process of law and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate to put an end to the criminal case and if the answer to such question is in affirmative, then the High Court is well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceedings. Reference in this context can be made to Hon'ble Apex Court judgments cited as Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543 and Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, 2014 (6) SCC 466.

10. In view of the proposition as settled in the aforementioned cases, this Court finds that continuation of proceedings would be an abuse process of the Court in the facts and circumstances of the present case which squarely falls within the ambit and parameters settled by judicial precedents and that allowing and accepting the prayer of the petitioners by quashing of the FIR would be securing the ends of justice, which is primarily the object of legislature enacted under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. Accordingly, the petition is allowed and the FIR No.19 dated 14.02.2021 under Sections 323, 34, 406 and 498-A of IPC registered at Women Police Station, Jind District Jind and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners on the basis of affidavit dated 11.12.2023 (Annexure P-3) and joint statement recorded in under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act dated 02.12.2023 (Annexure P-4) arrived at between the parties.

11. Needless to say that the parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of the compromise and statements as recorded before learned Judicial Magistrate.
