CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARPREET SINGH BRAR

Present: Mr. Paramjeet Singh, Advocate for the petitioner in CRR(F)-1830-2023
and for the respondent in CRR(F)-799-2024.

Mr. Sandeep Sharma, Advocate
for the petitioner in CRR(F)-799-2024
and for the respondent in CRR(F)-1830-2023.

HARPREET SINGH BRAR J. (ORAL)

1. The present revision petitions have been preferred against the impugned order dated 11.09.2023 passed by the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Sonipat under Section 125 of the Cr.P.C. vide which maintenance amount of Rs. 24,000/- per month has been awarded in favour of petitioner-wife in CRR(F)-1830-2023.

2. For the sake of brevity, the facts are taken from CRR(F)-1830-2023 (O&M).

3. The marriage between the petitioner-wife and respondent-husband was solemnized on 07.12.2015 according to Hindu Rites and Ceremonies. No child was born from the wedlock. However, matrimonial dispute ensued between the couple and the petitioner-wife filed a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. seeking maintenance to the tune of Rs. 40,000/- per month. The respondent-husband filed a reply and contested the claim made by the respondents. The learned Family Court vide impugned order dated 11.09.2023 awarded maintenance of Rs. 24,000/- per month in favour of petitioner-wife. Aggrieved by the same, both the parties have preferred these revision petitions.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner-wife in CRR(F)-1830-2023 inter alia contends that learned Family Court, Sonipat has fallen into grave error by awarding a meager amount of Rs. 24,000/- per month, which is not in consonance with the actual salary of the respondent-husband and as per the salary slip, available on record, monthly income of the petitioner is Rs. 1,26,184/- and as such, the amount of maintenance awarded by learned Family Court, Sonipat, is not sufficient and requires enhancement.

5. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondent-husband in CRR(F)-1830-2023 contends that an exorbitant amount of Rs. 24,000/- per month has been awarded because the respondent has the liability to take care of his unmarried sister, grandmother and old aged parents. As such, the respondent is not in a position to pay the huge amount of maintenance awarded in favour of petitioner-wife.

6. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and gone through the case file with their able assistance.

7. The object and purpose behind granting maintenance is to ensure that the dependent spouse is not reduced to destitution or vagrancy on account of failure of marriage. At the same time, a just and careful balance must be struck to ensure that this provision does not degenerate into a weapon to punish the other spouse. The Courts are required to conduct the maintenance proceedings while being alive to the legislative intent behind the provision under Section 125 Cr.P.C in its true spirit, which is to provide speedy assistance and social justice to women, children and infirm parents. The provisions of Section 125 Cr.P.C. were enacted as a measure to further social justice and protect dependent women, children and parents, which also fall within the constitutional sweep of Article 15(3) reinforced by Article 39 of the Constitution of India.

8. A three-Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Vimala (K.) v. Veeraswamy (K.) (1991) 2 SCC 375, speaking through Justice Fatima Beevi, opined that as follows:

“3. Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is meant to achieve a social purpose. The object is to prevent vagrancy and destitution. It provides a speedy remedy for the supply of food, clothing, and shelter to the deserted wife.”

A two-Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Kirtikant D. Vadodaria v. State of Gujarat (1996) 4 SCC 479, speaking through Justice Faizan Uddin, opined as follows:

“15. ... While dealing with the ambit and scope of the provision contained in Section 125 of the Code, it has to be borne in mind that the dominant and primary object is to give social justice to the woman, child and infirm parents, etc. and to prevent destitution and vagrancy by compelling those who can support those who are unable to support themselves but have a moral claim for support. The provisions in Section 125 provide a speedy remedy to those women, children and destitute parents who are in distress. The provisions in Section 125 are intended to achieve this special purpose. The dominant purpose behind the benevolent provisions contained in Section 125 clearly is that the wife, child and parents should not be left in a helpless state of distress, destitution and starvation.”

CRR(F)-1830-2023 (O&M) and one more case*4

9. Another objective the legislature has sought to achieve by this provision is to provide maintenance pendente lite to the applicant spouse during proceedings emerging out of matrimonial disputes so that the she/he can maintain herself/himself, have sufficient funds to pursue the litigation, and not suffer at the instance of the affluent spouse.

10. There is a general tendency on the part of the wife to amplify her needs and the husband to conceal his actual income, making it difficult to determine the earning capacity of the rival claimants with exactitude. The rival claimants must scrupulously bring on record their actual respective earning capacities in order for the Court to arrive at quantum of maintenance which is just and fair in terms of principle of equistatus. The quantum of maintenance must be justifiable and realistic to provide succour to the dependent spouse and also to avoid occurrence of the two extremes of the maintenance being either paltry or extravagant, ensuring that neither of the two is reduced to a life of penury. The adequacy of the maintenance allowance has to be determined by the yardstick of the dependent spouse being able to lead a life of reasonable comfort.

11. While dealing with the issue of maintenance in extenso, a two Judge bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Rajnish v. Neha and another (2021) 2 SCC 324, laid down the criteria for determining quantum of maintenance and issued the following directions:

"VI Final Directions

130. In view of the foregoing discussion as contained in Part B -I to V of this judgment, we deem it appropriate to pass the following directions in exercise of our powers under Article 142 of the Constitution of India:

(a) Issue of overlapping jurisdiction

CRR(F)-1830-2023 (O&M) and one more case*5

131. To overcome the issue of overlapping jurisdiction, and avoid conflicting orders being passed in different proceedings, it has become necessary to issue directions in this regard, so that there is uniformity in the practice followed by the Family Courts/District Courts/Magistrate Courts throughout the country. We direct that:

(i) where successive claims for maintenance are made by a party under different statutes, the Court would consider an adjustment or setoff, of the amount awarded in the previous proceeding/s, while determining whether any further amount is to be awarded in the subsequent proceeding;

(ii) it is made mandatory for the applicant to disclose the previous proceeding and the orders passed therein, in the subsequent proceeding;

(iii) if the order passed in the previous proceeding/s requires any modification or variation, it would be required to be done in the same proceeding

(b) Payment of Interim Maintenance

132. The Affidavit of Disclosure of Assets and Liabilities annexed as Enclosures I, II and III of this judgment, as may be applicable, shall be filed by both parties in all maintenance proceedings, including pending proceedings before the concerned Family Court / District Court / Magistrates Court, as the case may be, throughout the country.

(c) Criteria for determining the quantum of maintenance

133. For determining the quantum of maintenance payable to an applicant, the Court shall take into account the criteria enumerated in Part B III of the judgment.

134. The aforesaid factors are however not exhaustive, and the concerned Court may exercise its discretion to consider any other factor/s which may be necessary or of relevance in the facts and circumstances of a case.

(d) Date from which maintenance is to be awarded

135. We make it clear that maintenance in all cases will be awarded from the date of filing the application for maintenance, as held in Part B-IV above.

(e) Enforcement/Execution of orders of maintenance

136. For enforcement/execution of orders of maintenance, it is directed that an order or decree of maintenance may be enforced under Section 28A of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1956; Section 20(6) of the D.V. Act; and Section 128 of Cr.P.C may be applicable. The order of maintenance may be enforced as a money decree of a civil court as per the provisions of the CPC more particularly Sections 51, 55, 58, 60 r.w. Order XXI."

12. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and perusing the record, this Court does not find force in the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner(s). A perusal of the salary slip of respondent-husband indicates that his gross salary is Rs. 1,26,184/-, however, after exclusion of statutory deduction, his net salary is Rs. 94,276/-. As such the petitioner-wife is only entitled to one fourth of the net salary of the respondent-husband in view of the judgment passed by Hon’ble Supreme Court in Kalyan Dey Chowdhary vs. Rita Dey Chowdhary Nee Nandy AIR 2017 SC 2383. Learned counsel for the petitioner(s) have not been able to indicate any perversity in the impugned order which warrants interference by this Court. Accordingly, the both the revision petitions are hereby dismissed being bereft of any merit.

13. Pending CRM(s), if any, are also disposed of accordingly.
