

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRWP-11637-2024
DECIDED ON: 03.12.2024

KAJAL AND ANR

.....PETITIONERS

VERSUS

STATE OF HARYANA AND ORS

.....RESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANDEEP MOUDGIL

Present: Mr. Shahid Anwer Chaudhary, Advocate for the petitioners.

SANDEEP MOUDGIL, J (ORAL)

The jurisdiction of this Court has been invoked under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus seeking directions to respondents No.2 & 3 for not harassing/implicating the petitioners especially petitioner No.2 in any false criminal case at the instance of respondents No.4 to 12 on account of love affair of petitioner No.2 with petitioner No.1 as they are living in live-in-relationship.

This Court has noticed that the age of petitioner No.1 is wrongly mentioned as 18 years whereas in the synopsis as well as in the Aadhaar Card, the same is mentioned as 21 years, which is a blunder mistake on the part of the learned counsel for the petitioners.

Each and every counsel is expected before signing the petition as well as synopsis to go through the same and examine the drafting himself as to whether it is in consonance and not in contradiction to any of the factual aspect but the same has been ignored by the learned counsel for the petitioner either before signing the same and at the time of filing.

In the instant petition, it is a further failure on the part of the petitioners, that what forced them to come in this Court from the State of Uttar Pradesh which is their parent State. They decided to ran away with the title “run away couple” to the State of Haryana and taking premises on rent with a probable purported rent deed with the sole purpose of making an attempt to mislead the Court and built up a case of establishing residency within the State of Haryana to invoke the jurisdiction of this Court to which they wouldn’t normally be entitled. Therefore, no cause of action has arisen within the State of Haryana for the petitioners to approach this Court by way of present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

Hence, the same is dismissed with exemplary costs of Rs.20,000/- which shall be deposited with Punjab and Haryana High Court Bar Clerks Association.

Registry is directed to process the compliance of this order as far as the costs part is concerned which shall be duly adhered to within a period of two weeks from today.

In case the necessary costs is not deposited within the stipulated period, bailable warrants will be issued against the petitioners which shall be executed through Chief Judicial Magistrate, Panipat.
