CWP-34973-2024

Decided on : 20.12.2024

M/s Nav Bharat Roller and Flour Mills

... Petitioner(s)

Versus

State of Punjab and others

... Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV PRAKASH SHARMA HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH

PRESENT: Mr. J.S. Bedi, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

Mr. Sourabh Kapoor, Addl. A.G., Punjab.

SANJEEV PRAKASH SHARMA, J. (Oral)

1. Notice of motion.
2. Mr. Saurabh Kapoor, Addl. A.G., Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of respondents/State.
3. The issue raised in the present writ petition is challenge to section 174(2) of the GST Act, 2017. The same provision was incorporated as section 174(2) of the Kerala State Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 as has been incorporated in Punjab State Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 and Haryana State Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017.
4. Challenge to vires of the said section was laid before the High Court of Kerala in bunch of cases which were decided in favour of the Revenue holding the provisions as within the framework of the Constitution of India, and also the action was held to be within the competence of the department.

5. The concerned assesses have assailed the judgment before the Supreme Court in C.A. No.006724/2024, [SLP(C) No.640/2023] titled as T.S. Belaraman vs. The Commercial Tax Officer and others along with connected SLPs, wherein leave has been granted vide order dated 14.05.2024. By interim order, the Revenue was restrained from taking any coercive steps, which has been directed to be continued by the Supreme Court while granting leave.

6. This Court in CWP No. 18967 of 2020 (O&M) & other connected cases, titled as, “Tecnimont Spa India Project Office vs. State of Punjab and another”, decided on 10.12.2024, have also passed similar interim orders and had posted those cases for waiting for the decision of the Supreme Court. However, now since the Supreme Court has granted leave, final adjudication will have to be done by the Supreme Court on the said issue.

7. Keeping in view thereto, we propose to dispose of the present writ petition and direct that the challenge to section 174(2) of the GST Act, 2017 would be subject to the final outcome of the decision in the case of T.S. Belaraman (supra).

8. Till the disposal of the SLP in T.S. Belaraman (supra) by the Supreme Court, interim orders passed by this Court, we have directed interims orders to continue. In the present case the respondents are restrained from finalizing the proceedings, which shall be subject to the
