%

CM APPL. 664/2024 (Exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to just exceptions.
2. Application stands disposed of.

3. The grievance of the petitioner is with respect to the personal allegations made on behalf of the respondent against the judicial officer, which, it is submitted, is not proper. This Court records that judicial officers who are discharging their official duties ought not to be subjected to any personal comments or remarks, as made by the respondent in the present case. This Court expresses its displeasure on such conduct of the respondent.
4. After some arguments, Ms. Arundhati Katju, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that she does not wish to press the present contempt petition and that requisite submissions shall be made before the learned Trial

Court, where the case is pending.

5. Accordingly, the contempt petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
