9. The complainant/respondent No.2 states that the matter has been

10. In view of the settlement between the parties, learned APP for the State also has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

11. In Gian Singh v. State of Punjab, (2012) 10 SCC 303, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has recognized the need of amicable resolution of disputes by observing as under:-

“61. ... In other words, the High Court must consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of criminal proceedings would tantamount to abuse of process of law despite settlement and compromise between the victim and the wrongdoer and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate that criminal case is put to an end and if the answer to the above question(s) is in the affirmative, the High Court shall be well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceeding.”

12. In view of the aforesaid circumstances, and the fact that the parties have put a quietus to the dispute, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the present FIR No. 363/2017, under Sections 498A/406/34 of the IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, registered at P.S. New Usmanpur and all other consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, including the chargesheet pending before the court of Ms. Arushi Parwal, learned Metropolitan Magistrate (Mahila Court)-02, North-East District, Karkardooma Courts, Delhi.
