1. These petitions have been filed seeking quashing of cross FIRs lodged by the parties being FIR No. 500/2018 and FIR No. 501/2018, PS Nangloi under Sections 376/328/506 IPC on the basis of settlement arrived at between the parties dated 21st October 2023, which is on record of this Court.

2. Petitioners and complainants in both these petitions are present in

Court and are duly identified by IO and the respective counsels and state that these complaints were filed emanating out of a neighbourhood quarrel which went out of control.

3. Compromise Deed dated 21st October 2023 is filed before this Court.

4. Both complainants in respective matters tender an unconditional apology for having instituted these complaints which merely arose out of quarrel, as also they are willing to pay costs. Accordingly, complainants in both these petitions shall deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- each with Delhi High Court Legal Service Committee within a period of 2 weeks from today. proof of deposit of costs be filed along with affidavit before this Court, as also copy be provided to the IO.

5. Considering the above settlement between the parties and the chances of conviction of the petitioners being remote and bleak, there is no use continuing with proceedings of the present FIR as it would be a misuse of the process of the Court and an unnecessary burden on the State exchequer. Accordingly, the petition is allowed. Consequently, both these cross FIRs being FIRs lodged by the parties being FIR No. 500/2018 and FIR No. 501/2018, PS Nangloi under Sections 376/328/506 IPC and proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

6. Parties shall abide by the terms of settlement.

7. Accordingly, both these petitions are disposed of. Pending applications (if any) are disposed of as infructuous.

8. Order be uploaded on the website of this Court.
