1. The present suits have been filed by Plaintiff i.e. Ms. Shreya Sawhney who claims to be the beneficiary of both the trusts, namely, Anjali Trust (in Suit No. 119/2023) and Anjali Trust (1986) (in Suit No. 120/2023).

3. Parties agree that common questions of fact and law arise in both the present matters. Both the parties agree that both the suits can be disposed off together. Therefore, both the suits are consolidated for trial and decree.
4. After some arguments, the Plaintiff and Defendants No. 1 to 3 are ad-idem that Anjali Trust (1986) that is the subject matter of the present suit (Suit No. 120/2023) owns the leasehold rights in immovable property, i.e., flat bearing number A-6, Second Floor, situated at 9, Prithviraj Road, New Delhi-110011, along with one car parking space which was purchased by the then trustees by and under an Agreement dated 30.09.1986 executed between Ramesh Apartment (Delhi) Private Limited and Anjali Trust (1986). The said flat is presently let out to M/s Vindhya Telelinks Limited. The said Trust also has liquid assets in the form of investments, the market value whereof is about Rs.97,87,603/- (Rupees Ninety Seven Lakhs Eighty-Seven Thousand Six Hundred and Three only) as on 31.03.2024. Apart from the aforesaid assets, Anjali Trust (1986) had availed a loan from 'The Punjab Produce and Trading Co. Pvt. Limited' ('PPTCL') in the year 1986

for the purpose of acquiring the said flat and the liability of the Trust arising from such loan aggregates to a sum of Rs.92,72,572/- (Rupees Ninety-Two Lakhs Seventy-Two Thousand Five Hundred and Seventy-Two only) as on 31.03.2024, along with interest.
