ORDER
% 21.02.2024

CM APPL. 10486/2024 (exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. The application stands disposed of.

CM(M) 1930/2024

3. By way of the present petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner is invoking the supervisory jurisdiction of this Court.
4. Learned counsel for the respondent/Insurance Company appears on advance notice.
5. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are aggrieved of order dated 14.12.2023, whereby, the learned Presiding Officer, MACT-01, Shahdara, Karkardooma Courts, Delhi has directed the petitioners/claimants (who are the widow and minor children of the deceased Mr. Munna Lal who received fatal injuries in the accident in question) to submit a succession certification consequent to the demise of the parents of the deceased/Mr. Munna Lal, who are arrayed as petitioner No.6/Mrs. Niyadra Devi and petitioner No.7/Mr. Ram Khelawan.

6. Since the matter already stands disposed of, there is no legal necessity to submit a succession certificate. However, the verification of the factum of death of the parents be obtained from the SHO concerned, if not already obtained.

7. The present petition is disposed of with a direction that the learned Presiding Officer, MACT-01, Karkardooma Courts shall not insist for requirement of succession certificate from the surviving claimants and the remaining amount of compensation which was awarded to petitioners No.6 and 7 be released to the widow of the deceased with accrued interest thereupon.
