₹1,25,000/- per month is given to her towards the alternate accommodation.

4. Ms. Rebecca John, learned senior counsel for the respondent, on instructions, fairly submits that the respondent has no objection and is ready to give a sum of ₹1,25,000/- to the petitioner starting from 18.10.2023, that is from the date of the passing of the order by the learned Trial Court, towards the alternate accommodation.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that they would be requiring two to three months' time for finding a suitable accommodation and as and when the property is taken on rent, the copy of the rent agreement would be provided to the respondent.

6. The learned senior counsel for the respondent, on instructions, states that arrears calculated at the rate of ₹1,25,000/- per month starting from 18.10.2023 would be paid within a period of two weeks from today and a sum of ₹1,25,000/- thereafter would be paid on or before the 10th day of every month.

7. In view of the above, the respondent is directed to pay a sum of ₹6,25,000/- within a period of two weeks, which would constitute the arrears up to 31.03.2024, and a sum of ₹1,25,000/- thereafter is directed to be paid on or before 10th day of every month.

8. The amount shall be transferred directly into the account of the petitioner, the details of which would be provided by the learned counsel for the petitioner to the learned counsel for the respondent

9. The impugned order dated 13.12.2023 is modified to the aforesaid extent.
