1. The present petition under Section 482 CrPC has been filed for quashing FIR No.193/2023 dated 04.05.2023 registered at Police Station Fatehpur Beri for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 468 & 471 IPC on the ground that the parties have settled their disputes. The Petitioner and the Complainant/Respondent No.2 herein are real brothers.
2. An affidavit dated 28.05.2024 has been filed by the Complainant/Respondent No.2 stating that the complaint was filed by him due to a misunderstanding and he wants to withdraw his complaint which resulted in filing of the instant FIR. It is stated by Respondent No.2 that he does not have any objection if the present FIR against the Petitioner is quashed.

3. The Petitioner and Respondent No.2/Complainant are present in Court today. The Complainant and the Petitioner have also provided copies of their Aadhaar Cards. The said copies of the Aadhaar Cards are taken on record. The parties have also been identified by the Investigating Officer. The Complainant states that he has forgiven his brother as the FIR was only the result of misunderstanding between the parties.

4. In view of the fact that the parties have settled their disputes and the Complainant states that it is a dispute between the real brothers and there was misunderstanding between them, which resulted in filing of the present FIR, he does not want any acrimony with his brother. The parties undertake that they will remain bound by the proceedings recorded before this Court

5. In view of the fact that the matter stands settled between the parties and also in view of the fact that the instant case is squarely covered by the law laid down by the Apex Court in Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab, (2012) 10 SCC 303, this Court is of the opinion that no useful purpose would be served in continuing with the present proceedings. Resultantly, the FIR No.193/2023 dated 04.05.2023 registered at Police Station Fatehpur Beri for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 468 & 471 IPC and the proceedings emanating therefrom are hereby quashed.

6. The petition stands disposed of in the above terms, along with pending application(s), if any.
