CM. APPL. 17012/2023

1. This is an application under Section 5 of Limitation Act, 1963 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for condonation of delay in filing the instant Revision Petition.

2. Having perused the reply and rejoinder filed to the instant application alongwith the contents therein, this Court finds that there are sufficient and cogent reasons to condone the delay of 246 days in filing the instant Revision Petition. Therefore, the delay of 246 days in filing the instant Revision Petition is hereby condoned.

3. Accordingly, the application is disposed of.

C.R.P. 90/2023 & CM APLs. 17010/2023

4. After some length of arguments, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner made an innocuous prayer to withdraw the instant Revision

Petition with liberty to raise all contentions and submissions made before this Court may be allowed to be taken up before the learned Trial Court at an appropriate stage, in accordance with law. With respect to the said prayer, there is no objection from the other side.

5. Heard.

6. Since the petitioner is not pressing the matter on merits, leave is granted to the petitioner without entering into the merits of the case.

7. The instant Revision Petition alongwith pending applications, if any, is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to raise all the contentions, arguments and submissions made before this Court, before the learned Trial Court.
