

$~13

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ RC.REV. 169/2019, CM APPL. 12636/2019

ASHOK KUMAR

.....Petitioner

Through: Mr. Amiet Andlay, Mr. Arun Kumar
Sharma, Advs.

versus

RAM SINGH & ANR

.....Respondents

Through: Ms. Shivangi Basin, Adv.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE TARA VITASTA GANJU

ORDER

02.12.2024

%

1. Learned Counsel for the Petitioner fairly concedes that the eviction order has not been passed against the Petitioners. He, however, seeks to impugn a finding contained therein.
2. After some arguments, learned Counsel for the Petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present Petition to file an appropriate remedy in accordance with law.
3. The present Petition along with pending application stands dismissed as withdrawn with the liberty sought for.
4. Parties will act based on a digitally signed copy of the order.

TARA VITASTA GANJU, J

DECEMBER 2, 2024/jn

Click here to check corrigendum, if any