1. The present petition filed under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. seeks quashing of the FIR No. 325/2018, under Sections 498A/406/34 of the IPC, registered at P.S. Palam Village and all other consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, including the chargesheet pending before the court of Ms. Surbhi, learned Metropolitan Magistrate, Mahila Court-02, Dwarka Courts, Delhi.
2. The marriage between petitioner no.1/husband and respondent no.2/wife was solemnized on 25.02.2015 as per Hindu rites and ceremonies.
3. No child was born out of the said wedlock.
4. Due to matrimonial differences between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2, the parties started residing separately from August 2016. Subsequently, respondent no.2/complainant registered an FIR against petitioner no.1 (husband), petitioner no. 2 (mother-in-law) and petitioner no. 3 (father-in-law).

5. On 10.08.2023, parties arrived at a settlement before the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, Delhi and as per the said settlement deed, petitioner no.1 has agreed to pay an amount of Rs. 12,00,000/- to the respondent no.2/wife towards full and final settlement of all her claims including istridhan, permanent alimony and maintenance - present, past and future. The copy of the aforesaid settlement deed dated 10.08.2023 is on record (Annexure P-2).

6. In terms of the said settlement, the marriage between the parties stands dissolved by a decree of divorce dated 18.01.2024, passed by Ms. Sarita Birbal, learned Principal Judge, Family Courts (South-West), Dwarka Courts, Delhi (Annexure P-3). Further, as per the settlement deed, an amount of Rs. 8,00,000/- has already been paid to respondent no.2 and the remaining amount of Rs. 4,00,000/- has been paid to her in court today, by means of a demand draft.

7. Petitioners and complainant/respondent no. 2 are present before the Court and have been duly identified by the Investigating Officer, SI Naveen, PS Palam Village.

8. Demand drafts bearing no. 921377 and 538845 dated 07.03.2024 for Rs. 2,00,000/- each drawn on Union Bank and Canara Bank respectively has been handed over to complainant/Respondent No.2, who acknowledges the receipt of the same.

9. The complainant/respondent No.2 states that the matter has been settled with the petitioners and she has no objection if the FIR is quashed. She further states that all the terms of the agreement have been complied with.

10. In view of the settlement between the parties, learned APP for the State also has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

11. In Gian Singh v. State of Punjab, (2012) 10 SCC 303, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has recognized the need of amicable resolution of disputes by observing as under:-

“61. ... In other words, the High Court must consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of criminal proceedings would tantamount to abuse of process of law despite settlement and compromise between the victim and the wrongdoer and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate that criminal case is put to an end and if the answer to the above question(s) is in the affirmative, the High Court shall be well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceeding.”

12. In view of the aforesaid circumstances, and the fact that the parties have put a quietus to the dispute, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the present FIR No. 325/2018, under Sections 498A/406/34 of the IPC, registered at P.S. Palam Village and all other consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, including the chargesheet pending before the court of Ms. Surbhi, learned Metropolitan Magistrate, Mahila Court-02, Dwarka Courts, Delhi.

13. In the interest of justice, the petition is allowed, and the FIR No. 325/2018, under Sections 498A/406/34 of the IPC, registered at P.S. Palam Village and all other consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, including the chargesheet pending before the court of Ms. Surbhi, learned Metropolitan Magistrate, Mahila Court-02, Dwarka Courts, Delhi, is hereby quashed.

14. Petition is allowed and disposed of accordingly.

15. Pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
