

$~32

*

IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+

O.M.P.(I) (COMM.) 128/2022 & CCP(O) 45/2022, I.A. 7586/2022
I.A. 9924/2022, I.A. 17093/2022, I.A. 18090/2022, I.A. 19221/2022
YOGESH GUPTA

.....Petitioner

Through: Mr. Shadan Farasat, Sr. Adv with Mr.
VK Chopra, Mr. Shubhashish Kumar, Mr. Shabad,
Advs
versus

UMESH GUPTA

.....Respondent

Through: Mr. Manik Dogra, Mr. SV Gautam,
Mr. Pulkit Arora, Advs

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASMEET SINGH

ORDER

02.09.2024

%

1. Mr. Farasat, learned senior counsel for the petitioner states that the present petition has become infructuous and all the reliefs which are sought in the present petition filed under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 can be sought in the execution as and when it is be filed.
2. Granting the said liberty, the present petition is disposed of.

JASMEET SINGH, J

SEPTEMBER 2, 2024 / (MS)

Click here to check corrigendum, if any