to knock at the door of this Court.

3. In my opinion, ends of justice would stand subserved if this petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to address a representation to the NCTE within three days, seeking the above clarification. On said representation being received by the NCTE, a decision on the representation would be taken positively within ten days thereof and communicated to the petitioner forthwith.

4. Needless to say, should the petitioner continue to remain aggrieved by the decision of the NCTE, the rights in law in that regard would remain reserved.

5. This writ petition stands disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
