CM APPL. 48380/2024

1. The parties have filed a joint application praying that the present appeal may be decided in terms of the settlement agreement, as set out in the present application, as the parties have amicably settled their disputes.
2. The settlement agreement set out in the present application is taken on record.
3. Accordingly, the above captioned appeal is disposed of.
4. Mr. Gaurav Pachnanda, learned senior counsel appearing for the appellant, points out that there are some observations in the impugned order regarding the applicability of the principles as set out in the judgment of Raman Kwatra & Anr. v. M/s. KEI Industries Ltd., 2023:DHC:83-DB.
5. He submits that it may be clarified that the present order shall not be construed as accepting the said observations.
6. In view of the above, it is clarified that we have not examined the contentions on merits and nothing stated in this order can be construed as this Court approving any of the observations made by the learned single judge in the impugned judgment.
