%

1. When this Court made a suggestion to the learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioner that all the contentions, including the contentions raised in the present petition can be raised by the Petitioner at an appropriate stage during the trial, the learned Counsel for the Petitioner graciously accepts the suggestion and seeks permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to raise all the contentions, including the contentions raised in the present petition during the course of the trial.

2. Permission and liberty, as sought for, are granted.

3. The petition is disposed of as withdrawn, along with pending application(s), if any. Since no arguments have been advanced on merits, this Court has not made any observations on the merits of the case.
