ORDER
29.04.2024

1. Petitioner has filed the present Writ Petitions challenging the Order dated 13.11.2022, passed by the Appellate Authority allowing the appeals filed by the Respondents herein on the ground that the Order dated 06.01.2020 was not signed by all the members who had heard the matter.
2. This Court does not find any reason to interfere with that portion of the Order by which it is stated that the Order not signed by all the members would not be an order in accordance with law.

3. Accordingly, the Writ Petitions are disposed of with the pending applications, if any.

4. Liberty is granted to the Petitioner to issue fresh Orders with signatures of all the members who were a part of the proceedings within four weeks from today.

5. For the reasons stated in the Writ Petitions, this Court is inclined to expunge all the adverse remarks made against the Institute.
