ORDER

1. The present petition has been filed alleging willful disobedience of the order dated 31st March, 2022 passed by the Supreme Court in SLP (Crl.) No. 1747/2022 and orders dated 27th April, 2022 and 11th May, 2022 passed by this Court in CRL. REV. PETITION No. 258/2021.
2. By judgment dated 11th April, 2023 passed in CRL. MC No. 1758/2021, and other connected matters, this Court had directed payment of ₹40,000/- per month to the petitioner herein. The petitioner confirms that ₹40,000/- per month is being paid to the petitioner.
3. On the last date of hearing, this Court had noted that order dated 20th December, 2023 had been passed by this Court, wherein directions had been issued to the respondent to pay an amount of ₹95,000/-, which the petitioner had paid towards the admission of the elder son in the Delhi Technical University (“DTU”). Pursuant thereto, the respondent had also paid an amount of ₹75,000/-. Thus the balance amount payable by the respondent was ₹20,000/-.

4. Further, the other issue raised by the petitioner was that the amount of Rs. 10,000/- that was payable by the respondent towards the maintenance of elder son had not been paid since December, 2023. Thus, arrears amounting to ₹40,000/- on that account had accrued till March, 2024. Thus, the respondent had undertaken to pay sum of ₹60,000/- to the petitioner within a period of one week.

5. The petitioner who appears in person confirms the receipt of the aforesaid amount.

6. This Court has already recorded the undertaking of the respondent, who appears in person that he shall pay the education expenses of the children towards the school uniform, school books, school transport fees and other co-curricular activities. The respondent is bound by the aforesaid undertaking.

7. Further, this Court notes that by order dated 20th December, 2023 this Court had stayed the execution proceedings initiated by the petitioner.

8. Considering that the various orders passed by this Court have already been complied with by the respondent, the stay that had been granted vide order dated 20th December, 2023, is hereby vacated.

9. The petitioner is at liberty to pursue her remedy before the execution proceedings for the purposes of recovery of the various amounts. The execution Court is at liberty to proceed with the matter on merits and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law.

10. The parties are further at liberty to request learned Trial Court to proceed with their respective matters expeditiously.

11. With the aforesaid directions, the present petition is disposed of.
