3. Needless to state that it will be open to the Petitioner to approach the Beat Constable of the concerned area, who on receiving call will render prompt assistance and take necessary action.
4. This Court also takes notice of the report filed by the Principal District and Sessions Judge, in compliance of the order dated 06.07.2022, wherein it is stated that Ms. Shweta Chauhan, DCP (Central) had filed threat analysis report indicating that threat analysis has been conducted and the Petitioner has been found to be under threat of category “C” as per Witness Protection Scheme, 2018. Based on this, Committee has decided to provide adequate security to the Petitioner, when he appears before the Court on the dates of hearing. The SHO of the concerned area shall comply with the decision of the Committee.
5. Petition stands disposed of as no further order is called for.
