7. On 24.05.2023, parties arrived at a settlement and as per the said settlement deed, petitioner no. 1 has agreed to pay an amount of Rs. 6,00,000/- to the respondent no.2/wife towards full and final settlement of all her claims including istridhan, permanent alimony and maintenance - present, past and future. The copy of the aforesaid settlement deed dated 24.05.2023 has been placed on record as Annexure P-2.

In terms of the said settlement, the marriage between the parties stands dissolved by a decree of divorce dated 18.10.2023, passed by Shri Ankur Jain-I, Judge, Family Court (North-East), Karkardooma Courts, Delhi (Annexure P-3). Further, as per the settlement deed, an amount of Rs. 4,00,000/- has already been paid to respondent no.2 and the remaining amount of Rs. 2,00,000/- has been paid to her in Court today, by means of a demand draft.

12. Learned APP for the State, on instructions, submits that the investigation in the present case is pending and chargesheet in the present case has not been filed yet. In view of the settlement between the parties, learned APP for the State also has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

“61. ... In other words, the High Court must consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of criminal proceedings would tantamount to abuse of process of law despite settlement and compromise between the victim and the wrongdoer and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate that criminal case is put to an end and if the answer to the above question(s) is in the affirmative, the High Court shall be well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceeding.”

14. In view of the aforesaid circumstances, and the fact that the parties have put a quietus to the dispute, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the present FIR No. 489/2022, under Sections 498A/406/377/34 IPC, registered at P.S. Khajuri Khas, Delhi.
